Prayer Ministry. Looking for a way to minister without leaving home? Each week Sacramento Central receives 20-30 prayer requests through our website. The Prayer Ministry is looking for individuals who are willing to intercede on behalf of these individuals. Prayer requests are sent out twice a week via email to the prayer team to be prayed over. If this ministry appeals to you, please contact Hope Beale at pray@saccentral.org.

Attention Early-day Sac Central Members: We will soon be celebrating our 130th Anniversary, and we are looking for past, early-day church members that go back 40-45 years or more. If that is you, please come to the Hostess Desk and sign your name on the list. Also, if you know someone who attended Sac Central when it was located on 23rd & K Streets, or when on Folsom Boulevard, we want to learn about them as well.

Commemorating 130 Years of Service. Tell your family and friends, and join us for our 130th Anniversary Celebration & Homecoming Event on Sabbath, September 30, 2017. A special program will be held at 2:30 PM which will include special memories, music, and a challenge for the future. Doug Batchelor will be our keynote speaker for the worship service at 11 AM.
