

* Psalm 77:13

Altar of Burnt Offering Justification * John 1:29

"Jesus loves to have us come to Him just as we are, sinful, helpless, dependent. We may come with all our weakness, our folly, our sinfulness, and fall at His feet in penitence. It is His glory to encircle us in the arms of His love, and to bind up our wounds, to cleanse us from all impurity...He is waiting to strip them of their garments stained and polluted with sin, and to put upon them the white robes of righteousness: He bids them live and not die." SC 52,53.

"If you are right with God today, you are ready if Christ should come today." FILB 249 * Eph. 1:7 *

"Christ...died for us, and now He offers to take our sins and give us His righteousness. If you give yourself to Him, and accept Him as your Saviour, then, sinful as your life may have been, for His sake you are accounted righteous. Christ's character stands in place of your character, and you are accepted before God just as if you had not sinned." SC 62

"When the soldier pierced the side of Jesus as he hung upon the cross, there came out two distinct streams, one of blood, and the other of water. The blood was to wash away the sins of those who should believe in his name, and the water was to represent that living water which is obtained from Jesus to give life to the believer." EW 209

"As the sinner, drawn by the power of Christ, approaches the uplifted cross, and prostrates himself before it, there is a new creation. A new heart is given him. He becomes a new creature in Christ Jesus.

Holiness finds it has nothing more to require." COL 163. "If you are right with God today, you are ready if Christ should come today." FILB 249

"'He that eateth me,' must have been a shocking statement to Christ's listeners. However, they should have realized and we too, that to 'eat' Jesus is to appropriate His life by faith. It is 'to receive Him as our personal Savior, believing that He forgives our sins, and that we are complete in Him.'" DA 389

"It is not enough that we believe on Christ for the forgiveness of sin; we must by faith be constantly receiving spiritual strength and nourishment from him through his word... 'The words that I speak unto you, they are spirit, and they are life.' (John 6:63)...The followers of Christ must be partakers of His experience. They must receive and assimilate the word of God so that it shall become the motive power of life and action. By the power of Christ they must be changed into His likeness, and reflect the divine attributes." PP 277,278

"That oil (referring to parable of 10 virgins) is the righteousness of Christ. It represents character, and character is not transferable. No man can secure it for another, each must obtain for himself the character purified from every stain of sin." TM 233,234

Rev. 18:1

* Gal. 5:22+23

"While God can be just and yet justify the sinner through the merits of Christ, no man can cover his soul with the garments of Christ's righteousness while practicing known sins, or neglecting known duties. God requires the entire surrender of the heart before justification can take place; and (in order for man to retain justification, there must be continual obedience) through active, living faith that works by love and purifies the soul." 1 SM 366

"One sin unrepented of is enough to close the gates of heaven against you. It was because man could not be saved with one stain of sin upon him, that Jesus came to die on Calvary's Cross." ST 3-17-1890

"If the truth sanctifies the soul, sin is hated and shunned, because Christ is accepted as an honored guest. But Christ cannot share a divided heart, sin and Jesus are never in co-partnership." TM 160
