

Passion Indicator

1. Make a list of everything about which you feel strongly and care deeply
2. Do you have a 'burning conviction' that a certain ministry is the most important place that God would have you? If so, what is it?
3. Does your gift-mix or gift-cluster point in a particular vocational or non-vocational direction?
4. Do you have a 'burning, gut-level desire' to reach a particular group of people, such as the lost, the un-churched, un-disciplined, poor, sick, oppressed, youth, children, college age, adults, business people, street people, alcoholics, homosexuals, AIDS sufferers, internationals, refugees, a particular ethnic group, cults, unwed mothers, single parents, young couples, singles, divorced, gangs, military people, apartment dwellers?
5. Do you have a strong desire to pursue a particular issue as your ministry? Do any of the following stir you emotionally: the family, abuse issues, emotional problems, health issues, divorce, drug abuse, poverty, starving children, legalism, the clarity of the gospel, current events in light of Bible prophecy?
6. Does the pursuit of a particular subject excite you? Examples include apologetics, cults, theology, the law, business, leadership, politics, government, finances, the arts?
7. Do you find yourself strongly attracted to a particular geographical area for ministry, such as urban, suburban, or rural area located in a specific city, county, state or foreign country?
8. Do you have a significant attraction to a particular area of ministry in your church, such as leading a small group, teaching a class, ministering to a particular age group, maintaining the building or grounds?
9. If money, family and time were not factors, what would you want to do for the rest of your life in your work, in your ministry, in your church?
10. Do you have a secret ambition, something you have always wanted to pursue but were afraid to tell anyone?
